Second Governor Selected

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today named Luther Hartwell Hodges, 62, governor of North Carolina, to his cabinet as secretary of commerce.

Hodges traveled here by train from North Carolina to accept the appointment from the president-elect who is spending the weekend at the oceanside home of his father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

HODGES WAS THE second Democratic leader named to the new cabinet. Earlier this week Kennedy appointed Gov. Abraham Ribicoff as secretary of health, education and welfare.

The president-elect hopes to have his cabinet complete by the end of next week, including the selection of a secretary of state.

Announcing Hodges' selection "with great pleasure," Kennedy said "never has it been more important for America to seek imaginative ways of stimulating the growth of its business and industry."

HE ALSO SAID that "never has it been more important for American business to increase its participation in world trade, and to demonstrate to the world the strength and vitality of our free enterprise system."

Such were the important assignments he gave to Hodges, calling his varied responsibilities as head of the Commerce Department "among the most challenging tasks of the '60s."

"GOV. HODGES will bring to his new position experience in both business and government," Kennedy said.

"During the last four years, under his administration, the state of North Carolina has secured $1 billion in new investments in manufacturing activities, in addition to huge sums for electric utility expansion. Much of this was made possible through Gov. Hodges' background in industry. We are fortunate to be able to secure a man of Hodges' ability and background for this important post."

KENNEDY AND Hodges appeared side by side in the white-walled patio of the Massachusetts Senator's home. The two leaders conferred for about 25 minutes before they walked out into the patio and Kennedy made his announcement.

9 Gas Tanks Destroyed in L. A. Fire

Army of Firemen Control Blaze At Refinery

SANTA FE SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — An earth-shaking explosion and fire destroyed nine huge tanks of high octane gasoline at a refinery before an army of firemen managed to halt the sweeping flames.

The spectacular blaze, possibly set off by static electricity, continued to burn today, but firemen had thrown up containing lines around it to keep it from spreading to another 75 storage tanks. Some of the tanks had a capacity of 80,000 gallons, refinery officials said.

BARRING AN unforeseen flare-up, fire officials said the blaze should burn itself out by sometime late today.

Leaping flames from the fire and exploding tanks could be seen from some parts of Los Angeles, about 20 miles away.

There were no injuries reported among workers at the Rothchild Refinery or nearly 100 firemen from eight neighboring cities that fought the blaze.

BUT SOME 400 moviegoers at a drive-in theater 100 yards from the edge of the refinery were ordered to walk out to a safe distance when the fire began late Friday night with a flash and shuddering explosion.

Neither damage estimates nor cause of the blaze that sent flames leaping 100 feet into the air had been determined. But officials theorized a static electricity spark ignited fumes around a gas tanker truck being loaded at the refinery.

"I SAW A FLASH," said truck driver Robert Gungals, 36, Anaheim, Calif., "then tremendous flames. I jumped out of the truck and ran."

Fire units from Los Angeles County, Whittier, Downey, Montebello, Bell, South Gate and Vernon assisted the Santa Fe Springs Fire Department in battling the blaze.

Tongues of flame shot more than 100 feet into the night sky, attracting hordes of sightseers to the blaze and creating a "big traffic problem" which resulted in interference with movement of emergency vehicles, deputies said.

R. M. Gorham Ex-Postmaster, Succumbs Friday

Ryland Monroe "Pop" Gorham, former Palm Springs Postmaster, died yesterday afternoon at Desert Hospital. He was 78.

A resident of Palm Springs since 1924, he was born in Maysville, Ga., and was the son of a postmistress in that town.

HE CAME TO Palm Springs in 1924 to operate the Palm Springs Builders Supply, and after a while he left that job to go into real estate sales.

On Sept. 16, 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed him Postmaster of Palm Springs, a post in which he served until Feb. 28, 1953, when he retired.

AFFECTIONATELY KNOWN AS "Pop" Gorham by all Palm Springs residents, he took an active interest in all civic activities. He was a charter member of the Palm Springs Lions Club and a member of the U. S. Postmasters Association.

He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Dorothy Gorham, a grandson, Tommy, all of Palm Springs, and one sister. Funeral services are pending at Wiefels and Son Mortuary in Palm Springs.

Eye Witness To Burglary Sought Here

Suspect Held On Suspicion Of Jewelry Theft

Palm Springs police today are searching for a woman who apparently watched a theft in action, and then left the scene before police were able to question her.

A 19-year-old Palm Springs youth — George Milton Kirsch, of South Calle Encelia — is in custody charged with suspicion of burglary following the breaking of a window in the Andrea Leeds Howard Jewelry store last night and the theft of $2,500 worth of jewelry and watches.

Police today asked that a woman, who apparently saw the break in of the store, and called to two Twenty-nine Palms Marines to "stop him," make herself known to the local law enforcement agency.

The two Marines, Corp. John Eggle and Pfc. Don McLean, walking along South Palm Canyon Drive at the time of the incident, took out in pursuit of the thief, but lost him a block from the scene of the crime.

Police officers, on routine patrol of the area a half hour later, noticed Kirsch looking in the window of a downtown camera shop, and attempting to avoid the police officers. He was arrested and taken into custody.

Classic to Host Luncheon for Civic Leaders

A luncheon for civic and business leaders will be hosted by the Palm Springs Golf Classic at noon Monday at El Mirador Hotel with former Colorado Governor Dan Thornton as featured speaker.

Invited are members of the Palm Springs Retail Merchants Association, Hotel and Apartment Association, Real Estate Board, Contractors Association and Chamber of Commerce, according to Tom Brown and August Kettmann.

Thornton will point out the importance of the Classic to the business people of the greater Palm Springs resort area.

VILLAGER 'AIDED' BY CRASH VICTIM

A year flashed back in a hurry for Bruce Thomas yesterday when he learned that one of the airplane crash victims was Colin Patchin, of the Oakland Fire Department.

For it was only slightly more than a year ago when he had been on a fishing trip to a small Mexican village 30 miles from San Felipe. While using a gasoline can, he cut himself on a ragged edge and suffered an inch and a half deep wound.

Thomas was 10 hours away from the nearest doctor in San Felipe, as the road was almost non-existent.

Just then a private plane landed at the seldom used airport there. Out stepped the pilot whose name was Colin Patchin.

He flew Thomas back to San Felipe, waited until he had medical attention, then took him back to the fishing village to rejoin his companions.

Needless to say, Thomas went to the hospital yesterday to see Patchin as soon as doctors permitted, and then contacted his wife in Oakland to give a full report on his condition.

Russia Asks Summit Meet

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet government today called for another U. N. "summit meeting" next spring to take up the problems of world disarmament.

Live TV Given Okeh

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower will personally welcome President-elect John F. Kennedy at the main entrance of the White House in elaborate televised ceremonies when they confer next Tuesday, it was announced today.

Eisenhower also has directed contingents from the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines to line the White House driveway on Kennedy's arrival at 9 a. m. (e.s.t.) and a military band also will be present.

THE WHITE HOUSE has granted permission to television networks to place live TV cameras inside the grounds of the executive mansion to record Kennedy's arrival and departure.

Kennedy and Eisenhower were expected to go over problems that the president-elect will face when he assumes office on Jan. 20, and consider ways to smooth the changeover from Republican to Democratic rule.

WHITE HOUSE News Secretary James C. Hagerty said Kennedy's car would enter the grounds by way of the northwest gate and drive the short distance to the north portico of the mansion.

Eisenhower will be waiting there to greet him and the two men will walk through the White House to the president's office for their conference.

THE PRESS secretary recalled that former President Harry S. Truman assigned troops to line both sides of Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the White House to salute Eisenhower when he came to visit Truman in November, 1952.

"This is the President's way of doing it," Hagerty said about the arrangements for Kennedy's visit.

Eisenhower apparently has assigned his son, Army Lt. Col. John Eisenhower, to coordinate preparations for Kennedy's visit. Earlier in the week reporters observed John going through what appeared to be a "dry run" of arrival ceremonies.

Cathedral City Community Church To Dedicate New Church on Sunday

CATHEDRAL CITY — The Community Church here will hold final worship services in the Cathedral Canyon site at 11 a.m. Sunday, and hold open house and dedicatory services for the new worship house on Terrace Road in the afternoon, Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor, announced.

In the morning worship service, Rev. Arnold will preach on "The Hand of God." He will be joined in the service by Dr. Graham Hunter, former pastor of the congregation. A special anthem will be presented by the Chancel Choir.

SUNDAY CHURCH School classes will be held at 9:30 a.m. in the Cathedral Canyon educational plant. The classes are expected to be held there the following week, also.

Open house activities will begin in the new Community Church (Presbyterian) fellowship hall and educational plant at 3 p.m., Sunday. An informal organ recital will be given at 4 p.m. by church musical director Harry Tomlinson, to demonstrate the new organ provided by the young adult "Mariners" class. Dedicatory services will be held at 4:30 p.m.

THE NEW CHURCH home, with central 2,500 square foot fellowship hall designed to serve as worship sanctuary in the first phases of the new location, has a central stylized cathedral design motif.

Featuring expanded aggregate concrete, interior full wall panelings, and modified buttresses with glass insets admitting light with a minimum of glare, the new buildings were designed by Plegier, Blurock, Hougan and Ellersbrook of Corona del Mar. Construction was done under contractor Berton Lamb here, with extensive volunteer work on kitchen cabinet work, painting, and clean-up.

A VOLUNTEER field expedition gathered stone from the large screening wall on which a steel cross is placed. Other facilities at the site include two class rooms, pastor's study and office.

The 2.5 acre site for the church, located at the southeast corner of Terrace Road, was donated by Mrs. Geraldine Goodall. The construction was done under a building committee, headed by chairman Paul W. Clark and Mary Keller, with Edward Slaughter, Bud Lampkin, Mrs. L. T. Allredge, Robert Sing and Bert Wade. R. P. Hollister is treasurer.

The congregation has announced plans for subsequent erection of a new sanctuary building, to be placed in the current front court of the church yard. Paved parking area is already prepared for Sunday, north of the new buildings.

LIVESTOCK DISEASE LAW ADOPTED BY COUNTY

An ordinance providing control and eradication of infectious diseases in livestock and regulating corrals, stockyards and feed yards was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week and will become effective Dec. 23.

Livestock is defined in the ordinance as any horse, mule, burro, goat, cattle, sheep, swine, and any animal ordinarily considered as a wild animal which is kept in captivity for any purpose.

Responsibility for enforcement of the ordinance is to be that of the livestock disease control officer.

Authorities disagree about who invented the accordion. Some Berlin. Others claim that Cyrillus Damian of Vienna invented it in 1829.

Superior Court Hearing Next For Dr. Schenk

Dr. Anton Schenk, involved in the "cure-all" arrests here six weeks ago, was bound over to Department A of the Indio Superior Court yesterday by Palm Springs Judge Eugene Theriault.

Dr. Schenk, who originally entered a plea of guilty in the local court, changed his plea this week to not guilty.

SCHENK IS ONE of three men who were arrested here by agents of the State Medical Board and charged with practicing medicine without a license.

One of the three, George Davis, a Los Angeles real estate man, was freed earlier this month when charges were dropped because of lack of evidence.

The third, George Oscar Mellon, 58, of Palm Springs, faces Superior Court arraignment in Indio Dec. 13.

DR. SCHENK WILL appear on Dec. 9 at 9:30 a. m. before Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe.

State agents, who made the arrest, said the men were selling shots which would "cure cancer and rejuvenate the body" at a cost of $2,000 donation. They were arrested when they reportedly attempted to give state medical agent David May an injection at a local private residence.

GOLDWATER ERRS, LAUDS APPOINTEE

WASHINGTON — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., yesterday praised the "appointment" of Rep. Stewart L. Udall, D-Ariz., as secretary of the interior—only to have red-faced aides confess later that the congratulations had been released by mistake.

The confusion began when Goldwater aides handed reporters in the Senate Press Gallery copies of a message to Udall in which Goldwater "offered my personal congratulations" for Udall's appointment as interior secretary.

Udall, on receiving the telegram, said it was "decidedly premature and, as such, is an unfortunate statement."

Tip to Farmers

FARGO, N. D. (UPI) — Wood preservatives containing pentachlorophenol or creosote may be toxic to swine coming into direct contact with them.

This was found out during experiments conducted at North Dakota Agricultural College by Dr. J. A. Schipper. Schipper said the problem has become more serious because more shippers are using these preservatives in wooden farrowing crates. The preservatives are especially toxic if used on freshly cut wood and have a more harmful effect on young swine.

22 Years Apart, Brothers in Meet

MARINE CORPS BASE, Twentynine Palms — Two Marine brothers here who had been separated for 22 years, got together recently after they had known one another — but without accurate identity — for more than a year.

Staff Sgt. Phillip H. McCoy came to know his brother, Sgt. Lowell C. Heimbach, after Heimbach had served his brother at a service station near here for approximately a year. McCoy took Heimbach's place at the service station, and noticed a familiarity in part of the background information listed on the employment records of both.

THE BROTHERS became parted in 1938 when their parents separated. McCoy was four, and Heimbach two then. McCoy lived with his grandmother at Sacramento, and Heimbach lived with his mother at Weimar. Over the years, the pair forgot one another, and not until McCoy's grandmother died in 1952 was he told he had a living mother.

McCoy found his mother in 1955, and she told him about his brother. McCoy began looking for his brother, across the nation, and in the Pacific. Both had joined the Marine Corps, both served in installations close to the other at times — but assignments prevented their meeting.

MCCOY RETURNED to the United States from Okinawa in time for Christmas, 1957. He came here in January, 1958. Heimbach arrived here in January, 1959. They met occasionally at the service station near here.

FINN IN CAPITOL AFTER LONG RIDE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It looked like the "New Frontier" at the White House today.

A half-dozen cowboys galloped up the driveway on cow ponies to deliver a letter inscribed on leather to President Eisenhower. They were greeted by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield and Homer Gruenther, special assistant to the president.

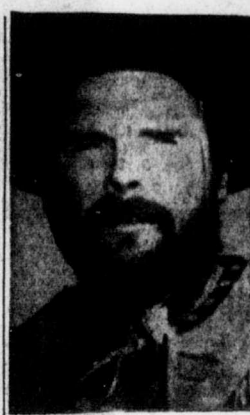

The occasion climaxed a 22-day, 3,000-mile "Pony Express" trek from Los Angeles by the chief scout, bearded and buckskin-clad actor, Mickey Finn, of Palm Springs.

The leather letter, carried cross-country in a saddle bag, was written by Thomas Wyatt, Los Angeles radio evangelist. It pledged that Wyatt and his associates would stand behind the President in the nation's battle against Communism.

Goals for Americans

Did either of the Presidential candidates answer all of your questions in the last election? Did either or both raise questions you still find unanswered? Are you concerned with the present position of your country? Would you like some answers to the questions of where we are going?

In the belief that for most Americans the answer to all of the above questions is, "Yes," The Desert Sun starts today a series of thought-provoking articles entitled, "Goals for Americans."

This is a report of the President's Commission on National Goals. The commission was set up by President Eisenhower last February to analyze the major problems confronting this country and to report on suggested objectives for their solution. The resulting report has been released for publication.

The commission was composed of such authoritative and diverse personalities as General Alfred Gruenther, Ambassador and University President James B. Conant and labor leader George Meany. Its 11 members embraced differing political faiths and economic beliefs. Its report, by instruction, completely non-partisan, was financed by private foundations.

The letter of transmittal to the President says in part, "We do not expect our recommendations to command unanimous acceptance. Rather it is our hope that they will evoke active discussion. Under the democratic process, this is the path to a national consensus."

With the hope that this report will evoke much serious thought and much active discussion, The Desert Sun today starts the series with the commission's introduction. Subsequent chapters will appear daily.

COMMISSION REPORT-INTRODUCTION

The paramount goal of the United States was set long ago. It is to guard the rights of the individual, to ensure his development, and to enlarge his opportunity. It is set forth in the Declaration of Independence drafted by Thomas Jefferson and adopted by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776. The goals we here identify are within the framework of the original plan and are calculated to bring to fruition the dreams of the men who laid the foundation of this country.

They stated their convictions quite simply: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

It was a mighty vision. In the echo of those fateful words can be heard the onrushing thunder of a new age. It was an even broader and bolder declaration than those who made it knew. Its soaring vision enabled our society to meet the trials of emerging nationhood. It placed the young republic securely behind the principle that every human being is of infinite worth. In time it led the nation out of the morass of human slavery. It inspires us still in the struggle against injustice.

To make this vision a reality, a framework of self-government was established nationally and in each state. It rested upon two fundamental principles — the election of representatives from among competing candidates, and the constitutional limitation of power of those elected.

The way to preserve freedom is to live it. Our enduring aim is to build a nation and help build a world in which every human being shall be free to develop his capacities to the fullest. We must rededicate ourselves to this principle and thereby strengthen its appeal to a world in political, social, economic, and technological revolution.

In the 1960's every American is summoned to extraordinary personal responsibility, sustained effort, and sacrifice. For the nation is in grave danger, threatened by the rulers of one-third of mankind, for whom the state is everything, the individual significant only as he serves the state. These rulers seek the "peace" of a Communist-oriented world, in which freedom is suppressed and the individual permanently subordinated. Supporting their aim are the Soviet Union's great and swiftly growing strength, the industrial and military progress and potential of Red China, a great capacity for political organization and propaganda, and the specious appeal of Communist doctrine to peoples eager for rapid escape from poverty.

Meanwhile, weapons of cataclysmic power have come into existence. A major nuclear conflict would be a world catastrophe; violence even in or between small nations could involve the great powers and spark the holocaust.

The Sino-Soviet threat and modern weapons present great dangers; we have equally great opportunities. With the increase of knowledge and material resources, we have achieved a standard of individual realization new to history. We can continue to improve our own way of life, and at the same time help in the progress of vast numbers in the world whose lives are blighted by chronic sickness, hunger and illiteracy.

Since 1946, foreign rule has ended for more than one billion people in Asia and Africa. Much of their yearning for independence, for respect, and for abundance has been inspired by Western and especially American example. Nevertheless, historic resentments, inadequate economies, inexperience in self-government, and excessive expectations offer fertile ground for Communist persuasion and conquest. This restless tide of events defines the magnitude of our problems and the scope of our opportunity.

To preserve and enlarge our own liberties, to meet a deadly menace, and to extend the area of freedom throughout the world: these are high and difficult goals. Yet our past performance justifies confidence that they can be achieved if every American will accept personal responsibility for them.

This report identifies goals and sets forth programs. It is directed to the citizens of this country, each of whom sets his own goals and seeks to realize them in his life, through private efforts, and through various levels of government. Choices are hard, and costs heavy. They demand subordination of lesser goals to the greater. But the rewards are beyond calculation, for the future of our nation depends on the result.

At the same time, the United States cannot attain its goals alone, nor by offering the free world erudite alms or condescending leadership. We must lead, but in a spirit of genuine partnership. Together the free peoples of the world can develop unmatched strength and vindicate the mighty vision of the Declaration.

The Desert Sun

It is most unfortunate that the election returns did not give a decisive majority to one side or the other. Our quarreling over the matter most certainly will not elevate us in the watchful eyes of the world, especially after so much broadcasting about our model democracy.

One can imagine the guffaws from Moscow.

For our future welfare and prestige round the world, let us hope the losing side will put aside their disappointment and concede the election to the apparent victor.

The Desert Sun

As Superintendent of Schools and also as an individual concerned with the best opportunities possible for public education of high quality, I am writing to commend The Desert Sun for the fine improvements which your company has recently made in its paper.

Those of us associated with the public schools concur in the opinion that the new type of print being used has contributed greatly to ease and speed in reading. This improvement alone should result in a better informed public, as well as in a newspaper of far better appearance.

We would also like to comment favorably upon the wider news coverage now being provided, and upon the general format and composition of the paper, which we realize you are continually striving to improve.

Progress in this area of publication will help keep pace with the very great progress which is so noticeable throughout the desert area.

Our congratulations to you.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

We really do not need a law
To save a little sun,
Just a simple change in habits
And then we've got it done.

Being known in some circles
as Fearless Phat and in others as that muddling Mr. G. here I go again, sticking my neck out.

PERHAPS TODAY'S essay should be prefaced with what you read in the newspapers or on TV or hear on the radio.

You know, "The opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of the sponsors."

In this case, that's The Desert
Sun.

But it was in The Desert Sun that I saw the headline which perturbed me.

THIS HEADLINE set forth
"Daylight Saving Time Proposed."

But I guess the Council is not going to pass a law. Will let nature take its course in the state legislature.

Now, at the risk of alienating the friendship of some men I much admire and who do things and get things done, I'd like to reiterate we do not need a law.

We do not need to monkey with the hands of the clock.

LET THOSE WHO want an extra hour of sunshine in the afternoon start work an hour earlier in the morning and quit an hour earlier in the afternoon.
They could get together and petition the boss to that effect.

Those now gainfully employed between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. could go to work at 7 a.m. and quit at 4 p.m. It's as simple as that.

THOSE WHO go all out and would save two hours of sunshine, could go to work at 6 a.m.
and quit at 3 p.m.

Only they'd be sorta lonely in the early morning.

In that way we wouldn't get our plane, train schedules, bus time tables, our communications, phone and telegraph, our radio and TV programs all muddled up.

We wouldn't have to keep two sets of clocks, one for Palm Springs and one for the surrounding territory.

AND THE KIDS wouldn't be going to school in the dark.

Here's another idea how to save an hour of sun. Stay on the job at the 9 a.m. coffee break but move the clock up a half hour. Do the same at the 2:30 p.m. coffee break and your one hour up on the day.

Besides, 30 minutes is too long for a coffee-break anyway.
But if you feel you MUST have a coffee break, skip the lunch hour or take just one hour instead of two.

MY PLAN lists only people who work. Those who do not have to work should worry.

The position of the hands on the clock isn't going to affect them.

So now, with some people I really like, I'm as popular as that common animal of the genus Mephitis at a garden party.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Our mother, age 70, eloped with the real estate dealer who sold her lovely big home for her. He claims to be 63, but he looks much younger.
No one knew she was even interested in getting married again. She had been a widow for 14 years.

Mother isn't the smartest woman in the world and we think perhaps she has become old and foolish. This man is a pretty fast talker and since he knows there is community property in this state, he put over a pretty sweet deal for himself. All mother's holdings were to be divided equally among her children when she goes, but we understand that has been changed. Is it possible for children to get a parent's marriage annulled?

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: It's possible, but you'd better talk to a lawyer about the probabilities.
Are you sure your mother is "old and foolish" — or are you children just young and selfish?

DEAR ABBY: I don't claim to be an expert cook, but one thing I make that everybody raves about is spaghetti. I entertain very informally, and always include some single people who eat out a lot, so maybe that's the reason why they are so appreciative and lavish in their compliments.

Well, I had my brother and his wife here for supper last night and I served my spaghetti.
My brother literally licked his fingers and said, "No wonder everyone raves about your spaghetti!" My sister-in-law said,
"Don't tell me you serve SPA-GHETTI to dinner guests!" I said I frequently did. She said it was considered very poor etiquette. Was she right?

SPAGHETTI COOK

DEAR SPAGHETTI COOK:
She is wrong. Although you served spaghetti, it tasted like sour grapes to your sister — in-law.
Ignore her remarks.

GLIB CONVERSATIONALIST is pretty Joan Connors, shown sandwiched between Riviera manager Ernie Glaser and stage age executive Rod Frank, her escort. ### AFTER SUNSET

Nix of Glamour Success Key

By GEORGE LAINE

An outdoor girl with an indoor look breezed into the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel here yesterday for her second consecutive weekend of relaxation from a sudden but arduous shooting schedule on Hollywood movie sets.

Her name? Joan Connors.

LEST YOU COME off with that classic "Who she?" retort, let's explain quickly. She's about a year into Hollywood, has already recorded more set time than most new actresses acquire in a half a decade and is booked for more of the same through most of 1961. "That's because I'm not a glamour girl," she sighed, while your reporter did a double take on the well-proportioned figure and the compelling smile. "There's no demand for glamour girls but most of the girls who come to Hollywood try to make it that way despite the obvious fact."

What Joan is, you see, is a comedienne, a character actress, a light relief for heavy films. It's different for a girl as pretty as she but it keeps her working.

THE BOSTON - BORN girl just finished "The Right Approach" for 20th - Fox, is now in works for "Beach Pad" for Paramount, just finished "A Man From Blackhawk" for TV and also has the second lead in "Child's Game," upcoming after the first of 1961. Sandwiched in and around this hectic schedule are the things Joan likes to do best: swimming, horseback riding, piloting a light plane, dancing with George Ringwald on the Riviera's spacious dance floor.

"I went after the comedy roles after I decided I wasn't the sexy type," said Joan, smoothing down her dress where it could be smoothed. "And I'm glad I did."

PALM SPRINGS spells one thing for Joan — relaxation.

"I consider it the most beautiful vacation spot in this country," she said, solemnly. "And I've seen most of the spots."

She's seen a few outside of the United States — including Castro's Cuba — and doesn't think they're in the running with Palm Springs, either.

"I was in Cuba making 'Chivato' — which means 'traitor' — and I wasn't impressed with anything about the island," she recalled.

"Of course, it just could be that I have bad memories. They flew us out just a day before the Cuban government confiscated our equipment."

"The picture? It's being held up — by request of our government."

JOEY GONZALES, a vital force in the Guadalajara Boys' highly successful reign at the Howard Manor, has formed his own unit — a four-piece orchestra which Yo-Yo describes as "all like me."

That would mean that the man has the swiftest quartet to ever shake maracas.

First date is a tentative (now) engagement in a Los Angeles beach area hotel. I'll let you know as soon as it firms up but you can congratulate Yo-Yo yourself since he'll be around town all weekend.

WHILE THE SOCIETY crowd dances tonight at the Pink Carnation Ball in the Riviera Hotel — and even as they dance — a group of dedicated women (and men) continue their efforts to stock the Angel View Thrift Shop with goods for Christmas-time sale.

I'm ransacking my own closets, my own garage, my own back yard for goods and materials that conceivably could be of use to this great cause.

Why not join me?

THE NOVEMBER issue of Pacific Coast Record, regarded as the official bible of West Coast hotel and restaurant business, has an accolade for Cliff and Lou Sawyer for their superlative work on the design of the new Sans Gene in Indio.

What the Sawyers have done, briefly, is to transform the Sans Souci, formerly a fairly directionless location, into a charming, continental restaurant - bar - banquet hall. The environment is totally French — and Marv Weisman intends to carry that same direction through in his cuisine, his waitress uniforms (also being prepared by the Sawyers) and in all other avenues.

It'll be a tremendous addition to the Valley when it opens — probably by the middle of next week.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Got my first Christmas card today... From the Chamber's Jan Lotz... She's a real early bird...

Last chance tonight to see Patti Moore and Ben Lessy with Paul Gilbert at the Chi Chi... Robert Cummings was ringside last night, caught the show and allowed as how he'd be glad to get back here when he finishes the film "My Geisha" in Japan with Shirley MacLaine... Cummings leaves for the Orient next week...

Hugh O'Brien is hosting things out at Whispering Waters this weekend... That means the joint will swing...

Eddie Cantor, recuperating from his recent hospitalization here, stopped in for lunch at the Biltmore day before yesterday, almost dropped his fork when the piped music to the Garden Room played "Makin' Whoopee"...

Palm Springs Woman's Club Has Luncheon at Eldorado

Eldorado Country Club was the pleasant setting for one of the biggest of the between-holidays parties, when Palm Springs Woman's Club held its luncheon-card party there on Monday.

Over two hundred smartly-dressed women, sipped cocktails outside on the sun-drenched loggia and inside in the lounge, preceding the luncheon.

A yellow acacia tree, standing in the lobby, set the motif for the autumnal colors of the luncheon itself. Individual tables were centered with king-sized gold champagne glasses filled with golden grapes and spilling over sprays of acacia and black leaves. Decorations were by Vivian Varon.

Cantaloupe boats carrying a cargo of pink and white grapefruit, were first course in a menu, which offered rack of lamb with broiled tomatoes and baked potatoes, followed by a strawberry dessert.

White - and - gold - wrapped prizes were awarded by Mrs. Harry Henkel and her committee.

Seated at the head table were: Club president Mrs. George O. Wheeler and officers and committee chairman, Mmes. Herbert Burns, Earle Arnold, Harry Henkel, Howard Matthews and assistants, Mrs. Carlos Schneider and Mrs. Bow Herbert.

Also at the head table were Mrs. Austin McManus and her niece, Mrs. Leon Parma of Washington, D. C., who is visiting here, and Mrs. Wheeler's daughter Mrs. Richard Bynion of Pasadena, who drove down for the luncheon.

The luncheon is one of three events, designed to raise money for the Club's $3000 scholarship fund. The other two events will be a fashion show luncheon at El Mirador on January 31, and a Spring dinner dance at Tennis Club.

Members of the Shadow Mountain Women's Golf Association are looking forward to their Christmas Party which will be held on Monday at the Shadow Mountain Club.

'Doolittle Raid' to Be On Century

Participants To Retell Tale; Films Scheduled

"The Doolittle Raid," the heroic story of the amazing air assault on Japan in 1942 by 16 B-25 medium bombers from the deck of the U. S. Navy carrier Hornet, told by the men who planned and flew the mission, will be presented on "The Twentieth Century" Sunday, Dec. 4, CBS Television Network, 6:30-7 p.m.

Narrated by CBS News Correspondent Walter Cronkite, the program will integrate documentary film footage of the actual "raid from Shangri-La" — so described at the time by President Franklin D. Roosevelt — and will feature a 1960 reunion in Colorado Springs, Colo., of the men who participated in the mission.

Among the participants who will appear on the program are General James Doolittle (then Lieutenant Colonel) who selected the men to fly the B-25s and led them; Admiral (then Captain) Francis S. Low (Ret.) who conceived the idea for the mission; Admiral (then captain) Donald Duncan, who chose the B-25 as the aircraft to be used (he is now governor of the Naval Home in Philadelphia);

LIFE LINE BROADCASTS, heard daily at 6:30 a.m. over Radio Station KDES, Palm Springs, 920 on the dial, has been given the American Legion Mercury Award for Americanism, and commended for its patriotic efforts to inform Americans of dangers that confront traditional freedoms enjoyed in this nation. Above, Wayne Poucher, left, radio commentator and a speaker for Life Line, accepts the award from Legion National Commander William R. Burke.

Miss Truman to Star

Margaret Truman stars in the highly dramatic role of a young woman who escapes from the world of reality after the death of her child in "Flight of Fantasy" on the "CBS Television Workshop" Sunday, Dec. 4 on the television network, 12 noon-12:55 p.m.

After the accidental death of her only child, Nancy Walters (Margaret Truman), a young wife living on the Gulf Coast, takes partial refuge from reality in an imaginary world inhabited only by people she likes and trusts. One day, when an itinerant salesman asks directions, she invites him to return that evening.

He takes her to the local fair from which she returns with souvenirs and happy memories. Just as she is on the verge of going off with the salesman to see what the rest of the country is like, she has a sudden change of heart and sends him away.

Duryea Parodies TV Heavies on Benny Program

Guest star Dan Duryea parodies television heavies when he appears with Jack Benny on "The Jack Benny Program" Sunday, Dec. 4 (9:30 - 10 p.m.), on the CBS Television Network. Duryea and Dennis Day portray unlikely hoodlums who menace a luncheon proprietor, played by Benny, but learn from the master miser that crime does not pay. Don Wilson plays a fleecless sheriff and Frank Nelson portrays an interior decorator whose timing is awry. Verna Felton portrays Dennis's mother and Benny Rubin and Colin Campbell are seen as luncheon patrons.

TWO TOOTS ... Pursed and puckered lips are the order of the day as Jay North gets instructions on how to whistle from his blowhard neighbor, Mr. Wilson (Joseph Kearns). This bit of shrill activity takes place in the "Dennis the Menace" show on CBS-TV, Sunday, 7:30-8 p.m.

WILLIAM BENDIX IS CANDID CAMERA STAR

William Bendix, currently starring on Broadway in the musical "Take Me Along," turns up as a clerk in a Manhattan antique shop in the candid film sequence to be introduced by host Arthur Godfrey on "Candid Camera" Sunday, Dec. 4 (CBS Television Network, 10-10:30 p.m.). Bendix, playing the "bull in the antique shop," chills the blood of prospective customers as he goes about his clerical chores and in the process seems to knock over valuable pieces of antique glass and china. Other film vignettes to be seen on the program include some film observations of the various techniques of smoking employed by both sexes, the reactions of people when they are offered, without obligation, any sum of money they desire, and a "Candid Camera" classic — "The Rest Room."

HEROICS AT 1000 PALMS

Volunteer Firemen Save Two Persons

THOUSAND PALMS — Five volunteer members of the Thousand Palms Fire Control Station are credited with helping revive two men — and one of them twice — within 48 hours Nov. 22-24.

The five manned the resuscitator unit purchased last year with local donations, to aid Curtis Strickland, Fleetwood Farms Ranch foreman, and Harland Mangold. Strickland was stricken Tuesday evening and Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 22-23, with asthmatic attacks aggravated by reported heart trouble. Mangold was given resuscitator aid Thanksgiving night while he awaited arrival of his doctor who treated him for heart disorder which had hospitalized him nearly four weeks Oct. 24.

Manning the unit were John Papp, first captain; Fire Chief Leo Miller, second captain Richard Jackson; volunteer president Everett Olsen and secretary Richard Hedglin.

Strickland was aided at his home, late Nov. 22, and sent to Casita Hospital, Indio, in follow-up action by sheriff's deputies. The next afternoon, he was brought to the fire station for resuscitation, where he was treated for nearly 40 minutes pending arrival of an ambulance to take him to Casita Hospital. The volunteers continued treatment to the hospital.

The number, "You'll Never Know," played an important role in the movie career of Miss Harris' mother, Alice Faye. The former actress popularized and became identified with the song after introducing the movie, "Hello, Frisco, Hello." Howard, debuting with his 15-piece orchestra at El Mirador's gala formal opening Wednesday night, will sing the song in honor of Miss Faye. Miss Harris' father is popular actor Phil Harris. # HAIR RAISING TALE

Slammer May Quit That Hat

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Slammin' Sammy Snead stood on the edge of the 18th green and approvingly watched Toney Penna roll in a 40-foot putt.

"Boy," the Slammer said in his high-pitched drawl, "that seems like old times."

"Yeah," Penna shot back, "like when we both had hair."

Snead tugged at the fancy straw hat which eternally hides the nakedness of his nude nob and stalked off the green, not even able to smile now despite his first round four under par 68 in the West Palm Beach Open.

Penna grinned at the effect of his blunt "needle" and recalled shooting a 32-34-68 to beat singer Perry Como in a friendly Nassau. After which Como applauded Penna as having played "pretty good."

"Sure," Penna laughed. "If I had hair, I'd go on the tour and give all these young fellows a lesson."

ONE WEEK LATER he received a package from Como. Inside was a brand new hairpiece and a one-word note which said:

"Go."

Now they were sitting in the clubhouse and Snead finally took off the hat which, some insist, he wears even to bed. "Lend me your comb, will ya?" he said to Canada's curly-haired Al Balding.

"What?" Balding sputtered. "What for?"

Snead grinned self-consciously. "My scalp itches."

Balding passed over the comb and Snead ran it over his head of skin, smoothing down the hair around the ears.

"Y'know," he said mournfully, "it began to come out when I was 19. I tried a rug, one time, but it just didn't feel right."

Ted Kroll, one of the silent men of the tour, sat down and listened for a few minutes. Then, dryly and seriously but with a twinkle in his eye, he told Snead:

"SAM, I GOT A fellow who can really grow hair. He was bald as a billiard ball but he's got a lot of hair now. He wants to grow hair on you and me."

Snead sat forward eagerly. "No kiddin'?"

"That's right," Kroll nodded. "He wants to use us free."

"Free?" eagerly said Sam, who is noted for counting his money so lovingly that he knows every serial number.

"Yep," Kroll continued. "Free. But then when he grows hair on us he'll use us as advertising, for free."

"Free?" Sam said frowning. "Sure," Kroll said, "he's gotta get something out of it."

Snead considered this silently and then asked cautiously:

"I've tried everything: nothing helps. But with this here fellow, do we get a bill if he grows hair?"

"It's absolutely free," Kroll insisted. "But if you don't want to grow hair, it's all right with me. I'll just keep this guy to myself."

KROLL STOOD UP and started to walk away. Snead leaped to his feet and followed him out, draping one arm over Kroll's shoulder.

Fullmer Vows He'll Spoil Ray's System

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Gene Fullmer, Utah strong boy and co-holder of the middleweight crown, promises to wreck Sugar Ray Robinson and his "secret survival weapon" tonight in their nationally televised third title fight at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

If he does, Gene probably will send 39-year-old Robinson into retirement and thereby end one of the most glamorous careers in ring history.

"ROBINSON PLANS to show me a left hook and then nail me with a right uppercut for a quick knockout," Fullmer — shouldered Gene explained today.

"That's his secret weapon. We found out all about it. He practiced it for weeks. I'll wreck that combination tonight and him along with it."

Fullmer, the 19-year-old mink rancher of West Jordan, Utah, who is recognized as 160-pound champion by the National Boxing Association (NBA) and the California commission, makes his fourth defense of that title tonight.

HE DEFENDS AGAINST the greatest comeback fighter of all time—an old but possibly still explosive Robinson who is getting an unprecedented seventh shot at the title and trying to win it the sixth time. No other champion ever won the title of one division more than three times. Lightweight Jimmy Carter did that.

Because of Gene's age advantage, his bullish attack and his stamina, he is favored at 13-5 to register his second victory over slender Ray.

They fought twice for the undisputed world title in 1957. Gene won the unanimous decision over Ray at Madison Square Garden in January of that year. But, four months later, Robinson knocked out Fullmer with a left hook in the fifth round at the Chicago Stadium.

THE BOUT WILL be televised to homes nationally by ABC with a 300-mile blackout in the Los Angeles area.

Robinson was undisputed champion on May 4, 1959, when the NBA vacated his title for failure to defend. However, he was still recognized as champion by Massachusetts, New York and most European countries.

But he lost that recognition last Jan. 22 in a title fight with Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass., who won a split decision. Ray tried to recapture the title on June 10 but again lost a split verdict to Pender.

Meanwhile, Fullmer won the vacant NBA-California title by stopping Carmen Basilio in the 14th round on Aug. 28, 1959.

Kefauver Warns Major Leagues To Expand Now

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Baseball's major leagues must expand immediately "to keep faith with the public," Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., warned today.

"It would appear to me," Kefauver said, "that in view of the transfer of the Washington senators to Minneapolis-St. Paul, in order to keep faith with the public, the American League must expand immediately by two teams . . . or both the American League and the National League must expand by one team, with inter-league play."

Two Sink Aces First Time on Local Links

Aces were wild yesterday on Desert Empire golf courses. Two golfers experienced that thrill of a life-time, their first hole-in-one.

At Thunderbird Country Club, Mrs. Walker Smith of Anandale, using a driver, popped one right in the cup from the tee on the 170-yard par 3 11th hole. It was her first ace.

At O'Donnell Golf Club, about the same time, H. T. (Slim) Lewis of Cheyenne, Wyo., teed off on the 135-yard par 3 5th hole and watched the ball sink into the cup. It was his first, too.

Monti Captures SoCal Open In Play-Off from Rodgers

Rallies on Final Day For Prize

Eric Monti, Hillcrest Country Club, Los Angeles, came from behind Friday to wreck the hopes of Phil Rodgers, USMC, of San Diego to win his debut as a pro performer. But it took a playoff to beat him.

Rodgers, former intercollegiate golf champion, playing in his first pro tournament, went into the final 18 at Indian Wells Country Club in the annual Southern California Open Friday with a three-stroke lead. But Monti, firing a stellar 33-36-69 made up eight strokes and drew even with Rodgers who slumped back to a 40-37 final round at 209 each.

IN THE SUDDEN death playoff, Monti came up with a 10-foot birdie putt on the second hole to win the tournament.

Monti scored five birdies in his come-back third round despite a brisk wind which started as the players neared the finish. Monti picked up $1,000 as the first prize in the event.

Jimmy Clark of Huntington Beach loomed as a winner for a while when he took the lead but three-putted four greens on the way home to drop behind the winners two strokes at 211.

TODAY AND tomorrow 32 hand-picked pros, teamed with three amateurs each, play a 36-hole Pro-Am at Indian Wells to wind up the week of big-time golfing. Jimmy Demaret, E. J. Dutch Harrison and Ken Venturi are among the pro stars in the field.

Leading Senior Golfers of Nation Here for Tourney

From all over the nation, from the northeast to the southwest and from the southeast to the northwest, Senior golfers, from 50 years of age to over 80, were rallying in the Desert Empire today for the fourth annual $20,000 United States National Senior Open Championship to be played next week at La Quinta, Bermuda Dunes and Eldorado Country Clubs.

Play will alternate on the three courses. Foursomes playing a different course each day.

LISTED AS PARTICIPANTS are 70 pros who have passed the 50-year mark and 296 Senior amateurs, playing in 92 foursomes, 70 of them with a pro and three amateurs and 22 all simon-pures.

Pairings as well as courses will be changed for each day.

Willie Goggin of French Lick, Indiana, two-time winner and defending champion, faces a tougher field this year as more of the top pros have passed the 50 mark and are eligible to play this year.

Among them are Jimmie Demaret of Houston, Texas, and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of San Francisco.

Jim Hines is in there as well as Olin Dutta.

Among the local pros entered are George Howard of O'Donnell and Bob Pinnell of Shadow Mountain.

Low handicap amateurs include George Dawson, Glen Ellyn, Ill.

THIS WEEKEND the almost 400 visiting senior golfers will spend sightseeing or getting in practice licks on the local courses. Deadline for registration is tomorrow at 6 p.m. and all will be here by then.

Monday will be spent in some more practice and sight-seeing and on Tuesday an 18-hole Pro-Am will be played on all three courses.

Wednesday is another day of rest and on Thursday play in the National Senior Open starts in earnest. The low 80 and ties will meet on Sunday in the final 18 holes at Bermuda Dunes, the others dropping out after 54 holes Friday afternoon.

Snead Holds 2-Stroke Lead in Florida Open

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — They were calling him "Scramblin' Sammy" Snead today but the old Slammer just grinned as he carried a two-shot lead into the third round of the $15,000 West Palm Beach Open golf championship.

Snead, shooting for the 106th tournament triumph of his storied career, defied his 48 years as well as 25-mile an hour winds and scattered showers to shoot a two under par 70 Thursday for a two-round total of 138.

That put him two strokes ahead of George Bayer and John Barnum of Grand Rapids, Mich., as the low 60 and ties struck off in today's semi-final round at the West Palm Beach Country Club.

Bayer, the first round leader with a 65, had difficulty with his short game and collapsed to a 75. Barnum came through with a 68 to go with an opening par 72.

Julius Boros, the former U. S. Open king from Mid Pines, N. C., had more than the usual fairway difficulties to contend with. He fell off a couch the previous night and broke the little toe on his left foot. But wearing rubber-soled shoes and with his foot heavily taped, he shot a two under par 70 to tie at 141 with Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., and Howie Johnson of Coghil, Ill.

Church Project Set

Sanctuary Building Approved

Trustees and the Church Board of the Community Church of Palm Springs this week were authorized to start immediate construction of the new $375,000 sanctuary.

The building permit will be taken out within the next two weeks, and the working drawings will be let out to contractors for bids, according to Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor. Actual construction is scheduled to start in January, with completion set 11 months away.

THE NEW 650-SEAT building also will include a chapel, a gift of Mrs. Helen M. Schiff of Seattle, Wash., and a new Wicks pipe organ, a gift of Mrs. Edward M. Harrington, also of Seattle.

Other memorial gifts also have been pledged or given, and the committee expressed the hope that as the work is undertaken further support will come in so that the entire amount will be raised by the time the building is constructed and dedicated.

IT WAS POINTED OUT that approximately $85,000 still needs to be raised for the project, including alterations on the present building and landscaping.

Architect for the new sanctuary is Robert Inslee of the Los Angeles firm of Orr, Strange and Inslee.

Groundbreaking ceremony date will be announced later.

3 Communion Stated Sunday At Community

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Community Church of Palm Springs on Sunday at both the morning services at 9:30 and 11, and at the close of the 7:30 evening service.

Dr. James Blackstone will bring a brief Communion meditation.

The invitation to this Holy Sacrament is extended to all Christians who "sincerely love the Lord regardless of their denominational affiliations."

In the evening the Billy Graham film entitled "Africa on the Bridge" will be shown. This is an important film in view of the tremendous uprising of nationalism and the feeling of independence which is seen in that continent and the challenge that it presents to the Christian faith, Dr. Blackstone said.

Youth meetings are held at 6:15 p.m., with an interesting program for Junior High and Senior High young people.

GOD'S SUPREMACY IS SCIENCE TOPIC

The completeness and supremacy of God will be highlighted in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" at all Christian Science church services on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Psalms, "Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth forever" (146:5, 6).

As the theme is developed in the sermon, the closing Scriptural selection from Revelation (4:11) affirms, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states, "The three great verities of Spirit, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience, — Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science, — contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual. These eternal verities reveal primeval existence as the radiant reality of God's creation, in which all that He has made is pronounced by His wisdom good" (p. 109).

Sh-hh!

Posh, plush, palatial. We keep trying to keep quiet about Araby Point Estates—Palm Springs' newest, most exciting development of 3 and 4 bedroom homes. (Because it hasn't officially opened yet.) But in spite of our good intentions, we get carried away. For example, who could keep quiet about these Araby Point Estates' owner extras?—floor to ceiling fireplaces with built-in log lighters; wall-to-wall carpeting; refrigerated air conditioning by Rheem; chef-approved, all-gas kitchens; rock wool insulation; professional landscaping; fenced rear yards; ranch-size lots; custom hardwood cabinets; weatherstripped doors and windows; sixteen foot wide paved driveways; oversized double garages with room for hobby shop laundry area; built-in living room plant wells . . . are just a few of the luxury features we aren't allowed to mention. Including: Araby Point Estates' preferred location in the wind-free south end of town. Where you find seclusion and privacy just minutes from downtown. Realistically priced from $27,900.

For a Sneak Preview, drive east on Palm Canyon Drive, past Smoke Tree Ranch, to Araby Drive, south one quarter mile to Araby Point Estates model home. Please don't tell your friends. The carpenters are artists. Crowds upset them.

RUMMAGE ON MONDAYS at TREASURES OF YESTERDAY 2

TRIPLE TREAT FOR FASHION AFFICIONADOS came at last Saturday's Dorothy O'Hera fashion show highlighting the new Park Imperial development in Palm Springs, when Mayor Frank Bogert teamed with the lovely Los Angeles designer-manufacturer to offer commentary on the styles shown ranging from swim suits by Rose Marie Reid to O'Hera originals.

Police Dragnet Seeking Village Burglar Suspect

An all-points bulletin has been issued today for Ernest Schornsten, 35, of Palm Springs, wanted for questioning in the $1,900 burglary of Ramon Drug Store and the John Connell Sheet Metal Company.

Schornsten is described as six feet tall, 180 pounds, dark brown wavy hair and his main job is that of a sheet metal worker.

A burglar broke into Ramon Drug sometime over the weekend and tore open a floor safe which contained more than $1,700, and during the same period of time hit the John Connell building for approximately $125 more.

Both burglaries were done in the same manner.

Roman Emperor Augustus used to lock maps of his vast empire in palace vaults, and only chosen individuals had access to them.
